January Session of CHLC: Medical Mistrust and Disparities in End-of-life Care
Presented By: The HAP Foundation CHW Team

Join us for a discussion about the current disparities that exist in utilization of hospice and palliative care. This presentation will help describe hospice care and its benefits and why some racial and ethnic groups utilize this care at lower rates. We will discuss Racism as a health determinant, learn about the history of medical abuse, discrimination, and exploitation in the U.S., and how it impacts hospice utilization rates in communities of color. The speakers will also explore current issues of Racism, inequitable care, and provider biases. The panelists will share current research projects that The HAP foundation is engaged in and explore how such projects can help advance policies, best practices, and strategies that can help providers become
